Welcoming the refugee

There are 34 Refugee Welcome Zones in Australia. These are city or regional councils which have signed up with the Refugee Council of Australia. Adelaide City Council acknowledges the difficult journey men, women and children have... In South Australia there is another city council and a country one. They are community-based groups which church members can support. And we welcome those from troubled countries who are already Anglicans. It is the stranger who is problematic by the plain fact that we do not know them. It is faith and love which casts out the fear of strangeness. It is seeing the face of Jesus in the stranger which opens the path to a relationship. And we can overcome our doubts and fears even before an encounter. May we be led to understanding and generous love.

“I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, And the king will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.’

Matthew 25: 35, 40

We pray for St Albans in the UK this week. The city has a refugee programme supporting refugees in Greece and Uganda. The Mothers' Union Community and Justice programs include Asylum Seekers and Refugees. They aim to Live God's Love with Generosity, Joy, Imagination and Courage.

JUNE 19TH YEAR C 2022 ST. BARNABAS DAY CELEBRATION : 11/6/2022

Sentence

Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith.
And a great many people were brought to the Lord. Acts 11:24

Prayer of the Day

Generous God, whose Son Jesus Christ has taught us that it is more blessed to give than to receive: help us by the example of your apostle Barnabas, a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, to be generous in our judgements and unselfish in our service; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

Job 29: 11-16

11 When the ear heard, it commended me, and when the eye saw, it approved; 12 because I delivered the poor who cried, and the orphan who had no helper. 13 The blessing of the wretched came upon me, and I caused the widow’s heart to sing for joy. 14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my justice was like a robe and a turban. 15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame. 16 I was a father to the needy, and I championed the cause of the stranger.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 98

1 O sing to the Lord a new song:

for he has done marvellous things;

2 His right hand and his holy arm:

they have got him the victory.

3 The Lord has made known his salvation:

he has revealed his just deliverance

in the sight of the nations.

4 He has remembered his mercy and faithfulness

towards the house of Israel:

and all the ends of the earth

have seen the salvation of our God.

5 Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth:

We welcome everyone worshipping here today.

Verse: Joshua 3:7

“... as I was with Moses, so will I be with you”.

- The abiding presence of the Lord is something we can experience.
- His presence makes all the difference in our lives.
- When we know that HE is with us, it’s easy to move forward.
- He is with you, and He will continue to be by your side.

PRAYER: Lord, thank You that You are with me. Your presence can be a reality in my life, just like it was to those I read about in Your Word. Surround me with Your presence and may I know that You are there, right beside me. Amen.

Acts 11: 22-30; 13: 1-3

11 22 News of this came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. 23 When he came and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast devotion; 24 for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were brought to the Lord. 25 Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul, 26 and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for an entire year they associated with the church and taught a great many people, and it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called 'Christians'.

27 At that time prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.

28 One of them named Agabus stood up and predicted by the Spirit that there would be a severe famine over all the world;

and this took place during the reign of Claudius. 29 The disciples determined that according to their ability, each would send relief to the believers living in Judea; 30 this they did, sending it to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

13: 1 Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a member of the court of Herod the ruler, and Saul. 2 While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, ‘Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.’ 3 Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

BATHURST ANGLICAN CHURCH

~ To introduce, grow and share faith in Jesus ~

All Saints' Cathedral, P.O. Box 258 Bathurst N.S.W. 2795

Dear Parish Warden's and Treasurers,

One of the main purposes of the Diocesan Camp is for us to be able to offer people from across our diocese the opportunity to gather together for worship and fellowship around God's word. It has been a tremendous joy in previous years to see multiple generations encouraging one another in these ways as a Christian community. The camp provides a vital opportunity for families and their children to mix with others of similar age and stage. This not only helps the young ones know that they are not alone in following Jesus, but also gives the parents the chance to share together about what it means to "bring up their children in the faith and practice of the church" today.

If your parish has a family, could I be so bold as to suggest that your church might be able to pass the hat around to provide a little assistance to encourage them to camp? If your parish does not have any children yet, there are 5 clergy families with young children who would be heartily cheered on to know that the diocese is supporting both them and their children as they live and work among us.

Every little bit helps and would be very gratefully received. Please reference either the name of the family or "camp donation" Direct Debit: BSB 082-441 Account number 392 655 240.

If you have any questions at all, please don't hesitate to contact me or Louise in the Diocesan office 6331 6567. While we are "On the Road Less Travelled" we journey together with our Risen Lord and Saviour.

Yours in Christ,

Phil

ST. BARNABAS

St Barnabas; martyr and apostle: Who is this Christian?

St Barnabas was a Cypriot Jew and Levite who became an early disciple of Christ in Jerusalem (Acts 4:36). Barnabas introduced Paul to the Apostles after Paul had been converted (9:27-30) and had previously been feared by the Jerusalem Church.

Barnabas was sent to Antioch, then the Roman Empire's third largest city, to investigate and report on the great growth in Gentile Christians largely because of Peter's preaching about Jesus. (11:22-30)

While praying and fasting in Antioch the Holy Spirit set aside Barnabas and Paul for mission and those remaining sent them off with a laying-on of hands (13:1-3),

Much of this and the next chapter of Acts, i.e., 13:4-14:28, contain a brief account of the growth in Gentile and Jew Christians across what is known as the 'First Missionary Journey'. Although Paul's name is often ascribed to the leadership of this journey Barnabas began as leader and Paul came to prominence through his Spirit-filled preaching and recorded miracles.

Barnabas though is strong in defending the claims of Gentile Christians, regarding circumcision, to the Council of Jerusalem (ch15; esp. v12) and returned again to Antioch with Paul (15:20-35) with some Jerusalem leaders, to continue the work there.

A disagreement between brothers.

Paul and Barnabas disagreed over where they should travel next and who should go with them. Barnabas chose John Mark, whom Paul did not trust after a prior falling-out, and Barnabas and John Mark sailed for Cyprus.

Although Barnabas does not appear directly in the book of Acts again, Paul notes in his letters that Barnabas was or had been at ministering in a number of places through references to Barnabas in Galatians (Gal 2:1, 13), Corinthians (1 Cor 9:6), and Colossians (Col 4:10 suggests Barnabas was well known there).

While the work of Paul and Barnabas who began the work of preaching Jesus in Cyprus, is well documented and recognised there is little more known of St Barnabas.

Although legend holds that he was martyred in Salamis on Cyprus in AD 61.
